Adult Spiritual Formation Update by William Custer

Our all-church series on Worship continues to be a popular experience. Expecting, Encountering, Experiencing, Struggling, Surrendering, and Sending. These are the themes around which the Worship Committee has focused us and around which Drew has built his sermons.

The all-church study of Worship will end on Sunday, February 7 and a five-week series of Adult Spiritual Formation classes will begin on February 14 and continue up to Palm Sunday. Below are the classes to be offered. Sign up for one of these in the Atrium today.

On the Sunday after Easter we will begin yet another all-church series; this time a city-wide journey. Who does not need to be spiritually formed, as the Apostle said, according to the image of Christ Jesus.

Below are the classes that begin on February 14:

Parables of Jesus

Jesus taught in parables, earthly stories with heavenly meaning. Sometimes he chose parables because they are a simple way to communicate. At other times he taught in parables to hide the truth from those with a closed mind. Come hear the parables of Jesus explained by a seasoned teacher. Led by Fran Kelley at 10:10am. Class size limited to 15.

The Book of Daniel

When the foundations are being destroyed, what can the righteous do? How can we live a life that pleases God in the midst of a pagan culture? Join us as we study how Daniel lived a God-pleasing life in the midst of the hostile Babylonian culture. We will also marvel at the sovereignty of God over history as expressed in Daniel's prophecies. Led by Scott Rice at 10:10am. Class size limited to 15.

Love Languages

Did you know that people prefer to be loved in a variety of ways. For some it is by words, for others acts of kindness and for still others well come to this class and hear about the other most common ways. Based on popular books by Gary Chapman this class will help you express your love in ways your loved ones can hear it best. Led by Jeanne Schneider at 10:10am. Class size limited to 15.

Christianity in the House of Islam

Muslims around the world, from a variety of cultures, are turning to Christianity. If we think of these cultures as rooms in a house, we can see the diversity of Islam and the universal appeal of the gospel. Based on the book: A Wind in the House of Islam. Led by Mary Belle Chapman at 10:10am. Class size limited to 15.

The Cross and the Old Testament

Why did Jesus have to die? What did his death mean and how did God prepare us for it through many of the rituals and symbols of the ancient Hebrew people? This study, based on the New Testament book of Hebrews explains how God used the Old Testament as a school master to prepare us for the work of Jesus the Messiah. Led by Drew Smith at 10:10am. No class size limit.

Worship: The Series Continues

This early morning group will continue the study of worship after the all church study concludes. Led by William (Bill) Custer at 9:00am. No class size limit.

It's a miracle!

When the Session Worship Committee first met, there were seven of us, and we had seven different opinions about what worship should look like at CHPC. To help us clarify our thoughts, the moderator of our committee, Dave Ping, asked us this question:

If God did a miracle and caused people at CHPC to worship Him perfectly, what would that look like? How would you feel? How would it affect you after you leave?

How would you answer that question? The committee would like to hear from you! There are three weeks left in the Foundation Hour class where we are exploring scripture, engaging in discussion and hearing input from the congregation on worship at CHPC. Please join us as we look at how a worship culture of Expecting, Encountering, Experiencing, Struggling, Surrendering and Sending might transform us for God's glory.

Not able to attend the Foundation Hour classes? We still want to hear from you! Please contact one of the members of the Session Worship Committee – Eileen Boyle, Jerry Dwyer, Cathy Lowe, Fran Kelley, Barb Rosen or Penny Sauer

Please be in prayer with us for God's will, not ours, to be done in our midst through the power of the Holy Spirit.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

The January BLAST (K-6) Theme is Self-Control: "choosing to do what you should do not what you want to do," and our memory verse is Proverbs 25:28: "A person without self-control is like a city whose walls are broken through." Please pray this month that our children would learn to rely on the power of the Holy Spirit to help them choose words and actions that honor God. Resources for both parents and kids are available on the BLAST page of the CYF website: <http://chpcyf.weebly.com/blast.html>.

We are proud to announce the launch of the brand new CHPC Children, Youth and Family website: <http://chpcyf.weebly.com>! Check out this website to find regularly updated news for Children, Youth and Family Ministry, a calendar of events, parent resources, and summer information and forms.

Crash for 7th-9th graders continues tonight from 4-5:30, and will meet weekly throughout the spring. This semester we will focus on growing in our relationships with God by reading through a gospel and talking about how we can apply it to our lives. We will again ask students to commit to coming to CRASH on a regular basis, and students who come every week of this semester will receive a $50 discount for the Summer 2016 Alabama Mission Trip or Resident Camp Work Crew.

Children, Youth and Family Summer Intern Applications are now available! Anyone who has been out of high school for at least one year is eligible to apply for the Young Adult Summer Internship, and any 10th-12th grade student who has been in or led a huddle this past year is eligible to apply for the High School Summer Internship. Applications are available on the CYF website at <http://chpcyf.weebly.com/summer-2016.html>, or at chpc.org/forms.

SERVING IN OUR COMMUNITY

Whiz Kids Tutors needed Please consider coming on board and being a tutor at Pleasant Hill Academy now through late April when our tutoring comes to an end for the year. We have a few children all ready to go on the waiting list who would love to be a part of the program. Its an easy way for an hour of your time on Tuesdays from 5-6pm to make a huge difference in the life of a young person. Please call Mark or Chris Evans if you would like more information. 513-522-6603

SPECIAL EVENTS

All-Church Chili Cook-off! Today At 12:30pm, we will once again have our Annual Chili Cook-off. Please bring your best chili, cornbread, or brownies to share and enter into the competition. During lunch, we will hear about summer ministry plans from the Children, Youth and Family team.
