

STEPHEN FOSTER AT SUPPER CLUB

Would you like to spend an evening with Stephen Foster? Then come to Fellowship Hall Monday evening, April 28. A delicious catered dinner will be served at 6:15 and the program will begin at 7:00. Call Sally Auble by Thursday, April 24, at 741-3125 to make your reservations. The cost is $10.

Mr. Ashley Ford, of the Cincinnati History Museum at Cincinnati Museum Center, will share Stephen Foster's music and life story with us. There will be a chance for us to join together and sing some of Stephen Foster's songs.

Stephen Foster (1826 – 1864), known as the "father of American music," wrote over 200 songs. Among his best known are "Oh! Susanna," "Old Folks at Home", "Camptown Races," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair," "Beautiful Dreamer" and numerous others.

Born in Pennsylvania, Foster moved to Cincinnati in 1846 and became a bookkeeper with his brother's steamship company. While in Cincinnati, he penned his first successful songs - among them "Oh! Susanna," which became an anthem of the California Gold Rush in 1848-1849.

Many of his songs had Southern themes, yet Foster never lived in the South and visited it only once. On his honeymoon in 1852, he and his bride took a river-boat voyage down the Mississippi to New Orleans. Stephen Foster moved his family to New York City in 1860 and about a year later, his wife and daughter left him. Beginning in 1862, his fortunes decreased. He died in New York City hotel on the lower east side of Manhattan. His worn leather wallet contained a scrap of paper that simply said, "Dear friends and gentle hearts," along with 38 cents in Civil War scrip and three pennies. One of his most beloved works, "Beautiful Dreamer," was published shortly after his death.

So join us at Supper Club Monday evening, April 28 for an evening with Stephen Foster.

The search for a new Director of Three Cs Nursery School has begun! As an important outreach ministry of College Hill Presbyterian Church, Three Cs serves and equips children and families from the church and surrounding neighborhood to grow and learn in a Christian Community Cooperative. This Christ-centered, community-building, partnership between parents and teachers has educated children and strengthened families for 46 years.

Because of Three Cs' success, a group at CHPC has begun meeting to see how we can use the Three Cs model to reach at-risk and impoverished families in the College Hill neighborhood. The Readiness Team is currently developing a 0-to-3 parent and child program that, in combination with participation in the Three Cs preschool program, will promote literacy, strong families, and readiness for entrance into kindergarten and first grade. This is exciting!

The Three Cs Search Committee is now casting the net through job postings and word of mouth to find the next person who will provide strong leadership to this ministry, honor the strengths and traditions of our current program, and challenge us in new ways as we grow into the future. We are accepting letters of application, resumes and references until May 1, 2014 at:
