The Church's Liturgical Practices: Celebrating Dennis Hall's Installation!

Pastor Dennis L. Hall offers Thanks and the Benediction.

Sunday, May 22nd, 2016 was a unique day in the life of College Hill Presbyterian Church in many ways. Some of the moments went by so fast that they might have been missed. This article highlights several of the biblical, liturgical and Reformed tradition aspects of Rev. Dennis Hall's Installation as a Minister in the Covenant Order of Evangelical Presbyterians (ECO) serving College Hill Presbyterian Church.

The Service of Installation is a 'big deal.' It is an affirmation that the Rev. Dennis Hall has been examined per the ECO denomination's Ordination Standards and has:

- (1) the necessary knowledge required to lead a congregation including, but is not limited to, knowledge of Scripture, theology, polity, and appropriate application of his knowledge;
- (2) the skills for ministry — to teach, preach, cast vision, disciple others, train people, develop leaders, work with individuals and teams; and
- (3) perhaps most important, displayed spiritual maturity.

PREACHING OF THE WORD

Central to Protestant Reformed worship is the preaching of the Word of God — where Jesus Christ is revealed. John 1:1 This contrasts with the Roman Catholic tradition where Christ is revealed in the liturgy and the eucharist, or the Pentecostal tradition where Christ is revealed through the manifestations of the Holy Spirit.

Rev. Dr. Laura Smit, Prof of Theology, Calvin College, Grand Rapids MI, was part of Dennis' ECO examination team.

Pastor Drew Smith welcomes Rev. Dr. Laura Smit.

He invited Dr. Smit to preach on the text he chose: Phil 3:10-11

I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of His resurrection and participation in His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death, and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.

In her sermon, Dr. Smit referred to 'American independence and self reliance are often barriers to knowing Christ. When a believer 'lets go' of control of life, God's Holy Spirit can reform it from the inside. Christ truly lives within...and God's power is released in a new life, one focused on God's Glory. [Hear the full sermon and installation service online — <http://chpc.org/> sermons.]

THE COMMITMENT QUESTIONS

Rev. Hall was installed because he was already ordained. In the ECO, the pastor and the congregation are both asked questions. This reflects ECO's Core Values of unleashing the ministry gifts of women, men, and every ethnic group, and of the shared leadership of Clergy and Laity.

LAYING ON OF HANDS

This practice runs throughout the Bible. In the Old Testament, Abraham's hands were laid on Isaac as a sign of faith and dedication. Patriarchs, priests, prophets and people of faith laid hands on offerings to God, and set aside leaders.

In the New Testament, Jesus laid hands on people of all ages and performed miracles that revealed God's Glory. In Acts 6:5-6 the Apostles confirmed new believers and affirmed the faith of existing believers. Later in Acts 8:14-19, the laying on of hands is associated with receiving the Holy Spirit and His power, gift and fruits. The Apostle Paul counsels about the laying on of hands in his letters to Timothy and the Hebrews.

The Church Universal has used the laying on of hands for many of these biblical reasons, including passing on God's blessings to new leaders.

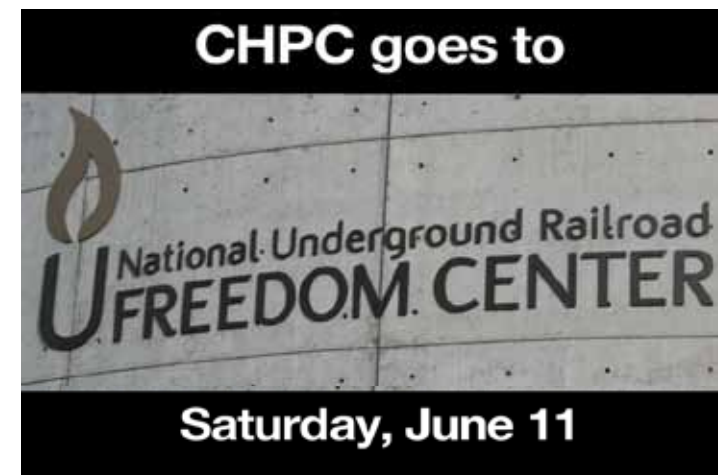

CHPC Elders lay hands on Rev. Dennis Hall and his wife Sharon during his Installation at both worship services 5/22/16.

THE ROBINING CEREMONY

The Geneva gown or preaching robe is the ecclesiastical garment customarily worn by ordained ministers. 500 years ago, the Protestant Reformers of Western Europe rejected the traditional dress worn by the Roman Catholic Church because they disagreed with what it represented. Instead, they began attending church in their daily clothes. These happened to be long black robes since the majority of the Reformation leaders were of the scholarly or academic class. In the Presbyterian tradition, this style of robe was adopted in honor of John Calvin, a Geneva scholar who defined much of our Reformed Theology — the basis of our beliefs and system of governance. This traditional garment and the red stole was presented to Rev. Dennis L. Hall by the CHPC Session.

Resident Camp Counselors - Men Needed! We've had a great response to our call for adults to come to Resident Camp as counselors! At this point we're looking for four more adult men to care for and build relationships with 8-10 kids of a specific age group (finishing 2nd-6th grade) along with at least one other co-counselor. This is a week-long commitment (July 3-9) where you will stay in a cabin with your campers. We offer a stipend of $350, but also welcome counselors who volunteer their time. Please pray if God wants you to be one of these mentors, and contact Robyn or Andrew if you feel God is saying yes! awells@chpc.org

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

FX Night is this Wednesday, June 1st, 6-7:30pm in Fellowship Hall! FX Night is a great place to invite new families or to meet families who are new to our church community and form relationships with them.

The May BLAST (K-6) Theme is Contentment: "deciding to be happy with what you've got," and our memory verse is Philippians 4:12b: "I have learned the secret of being content no matter what happens. I am content whether I am well fed or hungry. I am content whether I have more than enough or not enough." Please pray this month that our children would be able to trust God to meet their needs and shift their focus toward what God wants them to do with what He's given them. Resources for both parents and kids are available on the BLAST page of the CYF website: <http://chpccyf.weebly.com/blast.html>.
