Andwele

17 YEARS OLD

Andwele has a likeable personality and eager attitude. This makes him a perfect fit for just about any family, but especially one who likes staying busy with a variety of different activities.

Andwele - Born March 1997

Andwele really wants a forever family "so when I grow up, I'll have somebody to go to." He knows it'll be harder to find one the older he gets. He's 17 now - he celebrated his birthday by going to Steak 'n Shake for the first time.

"I know it's not going to happen, that I get adopted, because I'm almost 18," he says. "But I'm still pushing for it."

Andwele likes art and music. He plays guitar and has written about a dozen songs. His "God, O God" goes like this: "We love you, help me through my day, you're my father my holy father, I love you every day."

He goes to church and participates in groups there.

His favorite kinds of music to listen to are hip hop and R&B, especially the oldies. He likes basketball, but doesn't dream of a career in the NBA. He wants to own his own business, possibly in marketing. He loves the personal finance class he's taking in school.

He wants a family with people who are "nice, caring and loving." He likes animals but he's not sure he wants to have a dog again because he was really sad when his last one had to be put to sleep.

He's insightful about aging out of foster care.

"It's very rare for people to get adopted at 18," he says. "Foster parents usually want younger kids so they can teach them to do the right thing. But I want a family too."

New 3C's Director

The 3C's Director Search Committee is pleased to announce that Shannon Caton has accepted the position of Director of 3C's. Shannon has extensive experience teaching elementary school in an urban setting. Before she first came to 3C's in 2006, she taught at St. Clare Elementary School & Chase Elementary in Northside, and last year she taught at Corryville Catholic School. She also has 7 years experience teaching preschool at 3C's. While at 3C's, she had an opportunity to teach almost every age group, be a Key Mom and sit on the Board of Directors. Her vast experience in all aspects of our school, combined with her vision and passion for 3C's will bless our CHPC and 3C's family. Shannon, her husband, Eric, and their children, Ethan, Cam, Jack and Regan, who range from mid elementary through preschool ages, live in College Hill and are active members of St. Clare Church.

A Note From Shannon

As a former 3C's parent and teacher I am absolutely ecstatic to be back at 3C's as the director. 3C's has been such a blessing for me and my family. My own children started off school in such an amazing, loving, Christian environment. I have gotten to see the benefits of this foundation for them as they work their way through elementary school. I learned so much as a parent and was blessed to Co-op under so many fabulous teachers. As a staff member I could not have felt any more supported. I always knew someone would have my back. The leadership was wonderful. I also had the amazing opportunity to teach children in the Pre K/Kindergarten and to learn from those children and their parents. My time at 3C's was nothing but positive. It changed the way I parented, taught and prayed. There is no community like 3C's. I feel as though God has led me back to a place where I feel at home. I love that 3C's values Christianity and grace above all else. I know that being at 3C's and working at 3C's made me a better person, and who doesn't want to work in a place like that? I'm so looking forward to the future of 3C's. I cannot wait to get started!
