

Act now for Presbyterian pastors imprisoned in Sudan

Action Alert from the Presbyterian Office of Public Witness (PCUSA).

Reverend Yat Michael and Reverend Peter Yen of the South Sudan Presbyterian Evangelical Church were arrested by the Sudanese National Intelligence Service (NISS) in Khartoum, Sudan on 21 December 2014 and 11 January 2015 respectively. They were charged on 1 March in Khartoum with eight offences under the 1991 Penal Code. They are charged with committing joint acts in execution of criminal conspiracy; undermining the constitutional system; waging war against the state; espionage against the country; disclosure and obtaining information and official documents; promoting hatred amongst or against sects; disturbance of the public peace; and insulting religious creeds. The offences of waging war against the state and of undermining the constitutional system carry the death penalty, while the other six offences carry flogging sentences. It is believed that the two pastors were arrested and charged due to their religious convictions. The two pastors were held incommunicado by the NISS until 2 March, when they were transferred to Kober prison and permitted their first family visits.

Reverend Yat Michael and Reverend Peter Yen went on a hunger strike for two days on 28 and 29 March objecting to their continued detention without trial and to their lack of access to lawyers. They are both now being represented pro-bono by a team of lawyers. They have been to court twice, on 19 May and 31 May. Their last court appearance was on 15 June.

Amnesty International considers Reverend Yat Michael and Reverend Peter Yen as prisoners of conscience, arrested, detained and charged solely because of their peaceful expression of their religious convictions.

- Please write the President, the Secretary of State, and your members of Congress and urge them to:
- Call on the authorities to immediately and unconditionally release Reverend Yat Michael and Reverend Peter Yen and drop all charges against them;

Ensure that pending their unconditional release, Reverend Yat Michael and Reverend Peter Yen are not subjected to torture or other ill-treatment.

You can also write to the following Sudanese officials and ask them for the release and proper treatment of Reverend Michael and Reverend Yen. The letters need to be received before July 21.

It's Not Too Late

If you would like to see what it is like to serve in Children and Family Ministry, here's your chance, with no strings attached. Fill out the form below and drop it in the offering or give it to a deacon after the service. Mark the days you'd like to "Try It Out" to see if you'd like to be a regular ministry partner in that area. You never know, God may be leading you in that direction. But if you don't think it is a good fit, then no harm, no foul. That's why we call it, "Try It Out" Month.

Children & Youth Helpers in Worship

Children ages Kindergarten through third grade are invited to a Children's Worship service each week. Start off with your families in both the 9am and 11:15am service, then listen for the announcement dismissing the kids to their special service. Just before the sermon, children will be dismissed to their special study and worship time.

This week's helpers are:
9:00am Jason McSwain / Andrew Duke
11:15am Aidan Moncelle/Nathan Lowe

Next week's helpers are:
9:00am Michael & Lucas Fox
11:15am Toby Knueven / Jonny Wiers
