

Willie

14 YEARS OLD

Willie considers himself a bit of a comedian; he has a wonderful sense of humor accompanied by a beautiful smile.

Born: October 1998

He enjoys watching funny movies and is up to date on all of his Tyler Perry Films like Madea's Family Reunion.

Willie is a very motivated young man and strives to better himself. This active young teen likes basketball, football, and enjoys going to the library to play on the computer. Willie's favorite sport is basketball and he enjoys both watching the game, and playing it. He also likes to play video games like Madden Sports.

If you looked at Willie's bedroom, you would conclude that this kid is organized and neat. Surprisingly, he has been known to clean the whole house without being asked. On a typical day however, he likes to chill with his friends, listen to music and eat pizza.

Willie is looking for a small and easygoing family to join. He likes the closeness and support a small family has to offer. Willie also wants an active family that may want to go to Disneyland one day.

5 Important Shifts For ECO Churches to Make

What keeps churches from flourishing? Last month, the ECO Synod Executive Council met to think toward the future of ECO and discuss how we can best help churches flourish for the future.

They came up with 5 crucial shifts for churches to make:

- From "Clergy-centered" to an "Unleashed Laity"
- From "Safety and Preservation" to "Risk-taking and Expansion"
- From "Homogeneous Leadership Prepared for Christendom" to "Preparing all of God's people for a post-Christian Culture"
- From "Purely Attractional Model of Ministry" to "Missional AND Attractional"
- From "An Addition/Subtraction Mentality" to "A Multiplication Mindset"

Read Dana Allin share more about each of these shifts over on the ECO blog @ eco-pres.org - and share your stories and feedback of how you navigate them in your churches - as we work together to live out our mission.
