

8 QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CHPC ENDOWMENT, THE CHPC ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE AND THE CHPC TRUSTEE ADMINISTRATORS.

By Bart Sauer

- 1. What is the CHPC Endowment? In 1975, the College Hill Presbyterian Church Endowment was formed. It is a separate fund held in a trust wherein the principal money is invested, and income generated by the investment of the fund is then to be given away in the form of grants.
- 2. Who manages the CHPC Endowment? It is overseen by the CHPC Trustee Administrators who are responsible for ensuring that the fund is properly invested. The fund monies are invested and managed by an independent, investment company which provides a yearly report to the Trustee Administrators. The Trustee Administrators are elected by the congregation, one new member per year, to serve a 5-year term. The current members are: Robin Bechtel, Kim McCracken, Ann Klusmeier, Bart Sauer and John Wendt. The Trustee administrators determine how much money is to be distributed by the Endowment Fund each year.
- 3. How much money was given this year from the Endowment Fund? In 2015 a total of $38,000 was granted, and distributed among 11 recipients
- 4. Who determines who receives the grants? A separate Endowment Team, reviews applications for grants and makes recommendations to the CHPC Session for approval. For 2015, the members of the Endowment Committee were: Mark Fay, Chris Evans, Tim Sillaman, Bart Sauer, Claire Snyder and "Chappie" Chapman. If you are interested in being a part of this committee, you may contact Pastor "Chappie", or any of the other committee members
- 5. What are the grants for? Each year the CHPC Endowment committee has the privilege of issuing grants to be used for missions or outreach with the following guidelines:
 - To aid evangelism and compassion for groups or people "beyond the walls" of CHPC.
 - The monies are to be used for one-time expenditures, instead of supporting an organization's annual ' budgeted expenditures.
 - An outcome report documenting the use of a grant must be made to the CHPC Endowment committee within one month after the funds are used and no later than nine (9) months following receipt of the grant.
- 6. What were some of the grants given this year?
 - Scholarships for under-resourced youth to attend Young Life Summer Camp and CHPC Swim ministry. (See photos below of Young Life Camp)
 - Supplies for sun-powered systems to be installed in Latin America by SonLight Power.
 - A printer/copier for a theological college in Ethiopia.
 - Internet upgrades for spreading the gospel in the Middle East.

- 7. How could I give to the Endowment fund? While it is possible to make contributions to the Endowment fund at any time, most of the money contributed in the past has come as part of a person's will/estate upon death, or by friends or family contributing to the CHPC Endowment as a memorial to that person. If you have any more questions about the Endowment Fund, or would like to know more about how to contribute, please feel free to ask any of the Trustee Administrators or contact Heather Lethander in the CHPC finance office. The Endowment Fund is intended to be a forward-looking option for gifts to the church, designed to grow over time so that its resources will continue to carry out the church's mission for years to come.
- 8. Are applications available for 2016 distributions? Yes. Applications are now available on the CHPC website or in atrium racks at the church. Applications are due back by November 16.

The October Theme in BLAST (K-3) and MEGABLAST (4-6) is Individuality: "discovering who you are meant to be so you can make a difference," and our memory verse is 1 Timothy 4:12a: "Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young. Set an example for the believers in what you say and in how you live." Please pray this month that our children would learn to find their identity in Christ and use their gifts to make a difference in our world. For more information on what kids are learning as well as ideas on how to engage with them on this subject, check out the Parent Cue on chpc.org/forms.
