Working In Neighborhoods (WIN) Hall of Fame Induction

On November 10, CHPC's own Ed Wells was inducted into WIN's Hall of Fame for his extraordinary contributions to the vitality of College Hill. The ceremony was held on November 10th at the Hyatt Regency, downtown. Below is the write up about Ed from the Hall of Fame program.

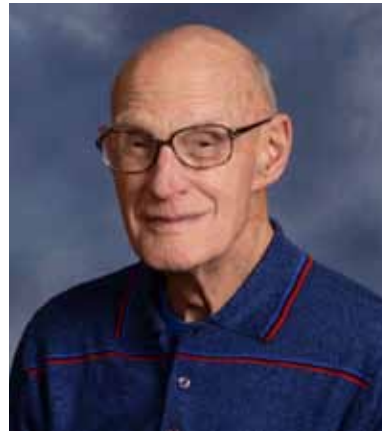

Ed Wells is an innovator and a civic leader. Upon moving to College Hill in 2005, Mr. Wells threw himself into the work of improving his adopted community. As a member of the College Hill Housing Team, Mr. Wells engaged Working In Neighborhoods to help revitalize the Cedar Avenue corridor that badly needed new housing-and new hope. Mr. Wells has been an advisor, advocate and investor. He has recruited volunteers, rallied the neighbors' support, and even mowed the grass.

In addition to working with WIN, Mr. Wells provides valuable assistance to the College Hill Community Urban Redevelopment Corporation and the College Hill Business Association. In 2007, Mr. Wells was presented the College Hill Forum's Josh Weiser award for outstanding volunteerism.

One of Mr. Wells' proudest achievements is completing the capital campaign for the Margaret Jean Wells Chapel at Llanfair Retirement Home, dedicated to his late wife. Mr. Wells is grateful for his 40-year career at Procter & Gamble where an assignment to improve paper towels resulted in the Bounty brand. He is the father of a son and has three grandchildren.

Mr. Wells is known for building intricate, historically accurate model ships. His interest in boats started as a young man when he built a rowboat and two sailboats. He now helps build homes where they are most needed.

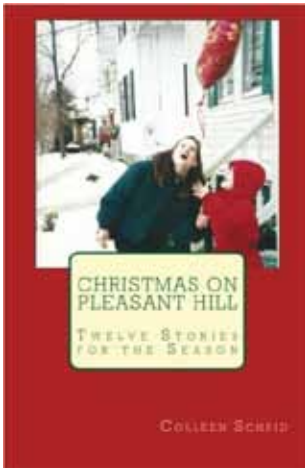

The next time you see him, be sure to congratulate Ed and thank for his dedication to College Hill and CHPC.

Start Christmas Shopping in College Hill

A book of Christmas stories set in College Hill will be sold near the fireside room on Sunday mornings after Thanksgiving, with half the profits to be donated to 3C's Nursery School.

Although the stories in "Christmas on Pleasant Hill" are fictional, the settings are real locations in College Hill, with many stories centering around the life of a church which happens to be a lot like CHPC.

The author, Colleen Scheid, said, "No one has to worry about showing up in this book! (Although I couldn't resist quoting my kids when they were little a few times.) But a lot of the stories do come out of experiences I've had or witnessed from living here and attending this church for so many years. That's why I dedicated the book to CHPC - I love our church and I'm so grateful to so many people here!"

The stories are about people of all ages and backgrounds - rich and poor, black and white, old and young - just like the people of College Hill. While most are family-friendly, it is not a children's book.

"Christmas on Pleasant Hill" will be available for $10 on Sunday mornings after Thanksgiving after the first and second services.

CHPC member Barbara Runck makes it easy. She has written Liz Finds a Forever Home - an endearing story about a wonderful dog, a great family pet with not one, but two careers in her life. Liz found her forever home with College Hill residents, the Runcks.

Barbara's neighbor Beth McLean said the book "is particularly heart-warming to me, because I see the story line as one which reflects [Barbara's] own life changes, not just those of her beloved dog, Liz...The story itself is beautifully illustrated in carefully crafted pencil drawings, so both the words on the page and accompanying visuals combine to bring Liz and her mission to life." Liz's mission is to go to nursing homes, hospice or hospitals and visit those in need of unconditional love.

It is a special book for dog and cat lovers. It is available at the College Hill Coffee Company. Check out the other gifts there and at the other businesses on the Avenue in College Hill. Help College Hill prosper.

The Deacons Thank You

Because of your generous, designated giving to the Deacons Fund and the bags of staple foods you brought to the church for the Food Drive before Thanksgiving, over 365 families in our congregation and community will enjoy great Thanksgiving meals.

Deacons are now collecting Christmas Food and Gifts

We ask that you continue your generosity for the Christmas season now at hand. Once again we are partnering with Christ's Community in College Hill to provide food for those in need within our body and our community. Please take a food bag with attached envelope for "Ham Money" from the Ushers as you leave the sanctuary today. The food needs are outlined on the bags. They don't include green eggs, but they do include hams. So bring back bags on Dec. 6, 13, and 20 with the staples recommended on the bag and the envelopes filled with "gold" so the local wisemen (Deacons and Food Drive Team) can buy the hams. They know how to avoid the green ones. Any checks for hams made out to CHPC should be designated as "Ham Money" or "Deacons Fund" on the memo line. Hand your food bags and Ham Money envelopes to a Deacon or Food Drive Team member at the church door.

Gifts (unwrapped) are also needed for children from infants through age 17. Toys are good, but we could also use gift cards, disposable diapers, toothpaste, detergent or other hygiene items. Questions? Call David Welch at 258-3808 or email at dwelch@comey.com Thank you.

Sometimes love and grace do show up in bags, boxes, and envelopes, and sometimes... in a manger!

We need greeters and helpers and even a presenter or two. Please listen if God is nudging you! Thank you!

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

The November Theme in BLAST (K-3) and MEGABLAST (4-6) is Service: "lending a hand to help someone else," and our memory verse is Matthew 5:16: "Let your light shine so others can see it. Then they will see the good things you do. And they will bring glory to your Father who is in heaven." Please pray this month that our children would learn to follow Jesus' example of serving others. For more information on what kids are learning as well as ideas on how to engage with them on this subject, check out the Parent Cue on chpc.org/forms.

CRASH (7-9th grade) meets today from 4-5:30pm in the CRASH room. Come for snacks, games, large group Bible study, and small groups.

Huddles (10-12th grade) are tonight from 6:30-8:30pm in the CRASH room.

MEGABLAST (4-6th grade) meets this Tuesday from 6:30-8pm in the BLAST Zone (Great Hall). Come for pizza, games, large group Bible story, small groups, and planning for the December FX Night!

Parents of elementary age kids group/class will meet during the Foundation Hour in the parent lounge of the ministry center (take the elevator in the atrium to floor 2), and will be going over the material on grace that the rest of the church is studying.

SERVING IN OUR COMMUNITY

Feast of Love ordered our first 10 beds for the Sleeping Sound program!!!! Two of the beds will be going to a family from Pleasant Hill Academy and 7 will go to a family from Elmwood Place Elementary. The last bed is yet to be determined. God is Good!!!
