Off to Cameroon!

By Jeanne Schneider

Where's Cameroon? That's a question that I am frequently asked as preparations for a mission trip, January 4-18, 2012, are being finalized. To answer the question, Cameroon is on the West Coast of Africa directly below Nigeria. Under the leadership of Acha Gorris, president of Oasis Project, a diverse team of ten will provide counseling, training to teachers and pastors, crusade leadership and general mechanical and construction projects.

Acha Gorris, former CHPC counseling intern and interim director, invited me to be part of this trip. Actually, I think the invitation was "I am taking you to Africa." Interestingly, that was enough to pique my interest and seek God's direction. As the trip began to take shape, I knew this was a step of faith God was calling me to take. The opportunity to use my skills and gifts to further the Kingdom is exciting and humbling. So, I guess Acha was correct. He is taking me to Africa along with several others. Elizabeth Brynes, who is a long time lay listener for the Care & Counseling Ministry, and Sarah Haney, former counseling intern, will both be using their gifts in the areas of counseling and prayer. Others from the Cincinnati and Ashland, Kentucky areas will also be sharing their gifts and talents with those in Cameroon. The Presbyterian High School in Batibo, Cameroon, will host the team as we serve the school and the surrounding villages and orphanages.

Please pray for the team in these weeks of final preparation that God will go before us. The team is collecting the following items to take to the children: soccer balls, beads, balloons, pencils, candy (not chocolate).

Financial contributions can be made to Grace Nazarene Church to help offset the cost of the trip. Drop off items or contributions to Jeanne Schneider in the Care & Counseling Center (White House).

Tom White Returns to Supper Club!

By MARYBELLE CHAPMAN

Supper Club's Christmas program will be held in Fellowship Hall on Monday, December 19. Dinner will be served at 6:15 and the program will begin at 7:00. Make reservations for dinner by calling Sally Auble, 741-3125. Remember, it's a potluck and you are asked to bring a dish to share.

Tom White, familiar to most of us, will be our guest artist. He played piano here at CHPC from his youth in the mid-60's through the mid-80's. He has played for Supper Club several times and is back by popular demand. He will play Christmas songs and carols, and we'll sing along with some.

Tom lives with his wife, Rhonda, in Mason. He was the Artist in Residence at Hope Evangelical Church from 1999 until recently when he became the principal keyboardist at the Princeton Pike Church of God in Hamilton. He also is a popular free-lance pianist for concerts, weddings, receptions, memorials, parties and other major events.

Tom has a great CD out entitled, "Just for You," which features popular standard piano selections and three of his own original songs.
