

Hot Off the Press! 12/18/16

BY DR. GARY R SWEETEN — Does this seem like a strange title? It appeared so to me when I wrote it. But it came spontaneously when I thought about the topic of missing our loved ones at times of celebration like Thanksgiving and Christmas.

We know that even Jesus wept at the death of Lazarus. We humans have the unique ability to both remember the past and consider the future. Today I still miss my parents who left us decades ago. I relish my memories of them and thank God for their Christian witness.

As we approach the holidays there are several things we can do to face our losses. Research shows that regardless of our specific problems, difficult life circumstances often ignited deeper faith, [i.e. Psalm 23 - "Even though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death...Thou art with me."]

As my wife Karen and I age we notice that families love to share past mistakes and embarrassments rather than successes. My parents had a ministry of attending visitations to support grieving families. They always included stories of fun and successes as well as sadness.

Intentionally facing grief at holidays can help ourselves and others by providing focus during special events together. The following activities can be the positive spark for what could be tough times.

1. Attend an Advent Candle Lighting Ceremony.
2. List why you are grateful for the person(s).
3. Reminisce with a great friend.
4. Go to dinner to celebrate good memories.
5. Review old photos and find good memories.
6. Donate a memorial gift or a plant to your church
7. Make a donation to your favorite charity in honor of the person(s).

Cry frequently, laugh often and thank God for the person(s) and legacy that means so much to you.

Adult Spiritual Formation December Update

By William Custer

On Sunday, December 18 and 25, and January 1 there will be no Adult Spiritual Formation classes during the 10:10 hour.

Sunday January 8 will begin our winter series of classes described below. Most classes begin at 10:10, however notice that Financial Peace begins at 9:30 during the first worship service. Notice also that the Multiethnic Conversation is offered on Sunday mornings and on Monday evenings.

Financial Peace

Learn how to manage your finances, eliminate debt and save using materials from Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University. Class runs 9 weeks from January 8 thru March 5 and costs either $99 or $139 depending on resources people want. Class will require a minimum of 6 couples or 12 people taking the class in order to proceed. Led by Rob and Robin Bechtel from 9:30 to 11:00.

Multiethnic Conversations

United In Jesus! Join the Spirit-filled interactions about ethnicity and race. We are committed to growing in healthy, unifying relationships. Multi-Ethnic Conversations will be our guide. We will be meeting on Sunday mornings or on Monday evenings. Invite your friends to come with you.

When: Sunday mornings January 8 – February 26 at 10:10 am OR 7pm – 8:30 on Mondays January 9,23,30; February 6, 13, 20, 27 & March 6 Childcare will be provided for the Monday night classes. Please RSVP for Child Care with Mary Clare at 871-2309 or mclarepeck@hotmail.com.

Bible Study - 1 Peter

"In his great mercy He has given us new birth into a living hope..." says the 3rd verse of 1 Peter. The apostle then spells out and develops the implications for us of our new birth, and then charts a course of amazing Christian living. Join us as we study this great epistle! Led by Scott Rice at 10:10. Class size limited to 15.

Blessings of Jesus – The Beatitudes

This class looks at the Blessings Jesus describes and how we can live them fully. Many of us know the Beatitudes, but have we looked at the deeper meaning? We will explore Scriptures from the Old Testament that relate to this nugget on Kingdom living that is found within Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. No book is required, but weekly homework will be given to get the most from the study. Bring a notebook and a Bible. Based on the book, Set Apart by Jennifer Kennedy Dean who is director of the Praying Life Foundation. Led by Fran Kelley at 10:10. Class size limited to 15.

The Prayer of Jabez

This prayer is hidden in one of the least read books of the Bible. In 1 Chronicles 4:10, Jabez prays a big prayer to God and God answered his prayer. It is not a magic prayer, but can change one's mindset so that we can realize all that God wants for us. He wants to bless us in large ways. It is my hope that we can learn to "walk each day in anticipation that around any corner, at any moment God can choose to bless us despite our circumstances." Living a Jabez life can change the way you think of God's supernatural plans for our lives. After one month of saying the Prayer of Jabez, you will begin to see the "dolphins", the "trail markers" or "God's finger prints" in your life. It is an exciting way to live your life. Led by Matt Wilbur at 10:10. Class size limited to 15.

Sacred Marriage

Your marriage is more than a sacred covenant with another person. It is a spiritual discipline designed to help you know God better, trust him more fully, and love him more deeply. Scores of books have been written that offer guidance for building the marriage of your dreams. But what if God's primary intent for your marriage isn't to make you happy. . . but holy? And what if your relationship isn't as much about you and your spouse as it is about you and God? Led by Jeanne Schneider at 10:10 Class limited to 15.

Parents of Young Children

Led by Andrew Wells at 10:10. Meeting in Parents Lounge – Ministry Center 2nd Floor.

Men's Ministry – Ignite 33

Led by Joe Brooks and Brian Kershner at 10:10. Meeting in Ministry Center Basement – Room A.

Please bring in new hats, gloves, scarves and mittens to fill our mitten tree in the Atrium. These items will be distributed by Feast of Love in January to warm the heads, hands and hearts of those who may be without this winter.
