Traditional Appalachian Music And Stories

"Imagine yourself in the past - say, one hundred years ago - on the porch of a mountainside cabin after the day's work is complete. This twilight time of day is typically when songsters and storytellers weave their magic. My imaginary setting is informal. The children gather around as songs and stories familiar to my ancestors are revisited.

"There is no TV or radio or even electricity to run either one. In this picture from the past, books are not plentiful, so history, both truth and fiction, is passed from generation to generation through the vehicle of songs and stories. Singing and storytelling are integral to the mountain life my forebears experienced, so I incorporate many songs and stories into my programs. Besides demonstrating the self-sufficiency and independent character of the Appalachian resident, the program illustrates several Appalachian instruments, e.g., banjo, fiddle, guitar, and lap dulcimer. I show that sound is produced from vibrations of my strings and how the instruments function.

"Because process is important to children, I am able to use props such as a groundhog skin on a stretcher frame to illustrate how my ancestors manufactured everyday items from the resources around them. Moving by story and song through my family history, we all learn about making do with what we have and gain some valuable lessons in self-sufficiency."

Malachi 3:10 (NIV)
Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this," says the Lord Almighty, "and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it.

1 Corinthians 16:2 (NIV)
On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will have to be made.

Psalms 24:1 (NIV)
The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it;

Adult Spiritual Formation Update

by William Custer

The Summer Session of Adult Spiritual Formation is upon us, it begins Sunday, June 5 and will continue through the whole month of July. Last Sunday ended the All-City Brave series, however some groups will continue to meet for several more weeks on the topics below:

May 15 All Church Journey: The Holy Spirit
May 22 All Church Journey: Reception for Dennis Hall (no group meeting).
May 29 All Church Journey: Remembrance Sunday

The summer series that begins Sunday, June 5 at 10:10am will include the following:

Gospel of Luke

The four gospels Matthew, Mark, Luke and John tell of the life of Jesus. Luke is sometimes called the Gospel of Mercy, and at other times the Gospel of Amazement or the Gospel of Prayer. Written especially for a gentile (non-Jewish) audience Luke begins with the birth of Jesus and continues to his ascension into heaven. Pastor Drew is excited about this class.

Led by Drew Smith at 10:10am (No class limit).

Book of Daniel

A discussion of some of the Bible's famous characters who faced a moment that required complete trust in God's provision. We will draw from both Old and New Testament stories such as Isaac and Abraham, Moses at the Red Sea, Paul on the road to Damascus and in jail, among others. Each class is "stand alone" session and summer vacation plans will not interfere. Attend as many times as your schedule permits.

Led by Scott Rice at 10:10am (Class limited to 15 people).

Too Busy Not to Pray

Based on the book by Bill Hybels. This class about prayer life requires some homework. Like all worthwhile things in life, just popping in unprepared won't allow a person to get the most from this class.

Led by Fran Kelley at 10:10am (Class limited to 15 people).

Married and Still Loving It

Based on the book of the same title by Gary Chapman. This class focuses on the joys and challenges of the second half of marriage, although newlyweds will grow through this class as well.

Led by Jeanne Schneider at 10:10am (Class limited to 15 people).

Right Brain Biblical Experience

Do you enjoy journaling & art? Experience a new craze of "Bible Art Journaling". Let's reflect on God's Word through art & express what it means to us via our right brains. Not an artist? Neither am I but I love to create, doodle, paint & draw pictures reflecting what God's Word means to me. Come & enjoy a new way of studying the Bible through your right brain. Led by Robyn Russell at 10:10am.

Cat and Dog Theology

Most of what you know about the Bible is not incorrect...it is incomplete! This DVD-driven class is full of humor and Scripture that will drastically change your life's priorities. Warning: This material has a proven track record of altering long-term goals and dreams. It's for those serious about obeying what God reveals to them. Invite a friend to share the 90-second discussions and a prayer covenant, or make a new friend through the class.

A Team led by Sam & Barry Stare at 10:10am for 11 weeks.

Alumni of previous classes welcome - Watch the Sunday bulletin for a listing of class themes each week.

Visit the registration desk in the Atrium for more details and to sign up.

Summer Intern Mentors - Women Needed! We've had eight adults sign up to mentor our Children, Youth and Family Interns this summer, which is awesome! We're looking for four more women who would like to pour into high school and college age students. You'd meet every other week this summer to pray with, encourage, and challenge your student. Please pray if God wants you to be one of these mentors, and contact Robyn or Andrew if you feel God is saying yes! rhubbuch@chpc.org

Resident Camp Counselors - Men Needed! We've had a great response to our call for adults to come to Resident Camp as counselors! At this point we're looking for four more adult men to care for and build relationships with 8-10 kids of a specific age group (finishing 2nd-6th grade) along with at least one other co-counselor. This is a week-long commitment (July 3-9) where you will stay in a cabin with your campers. We offer a stipend of $350, but also welcome counselors who volunteer their time. Please pray if God wants you to be one of these mentors, and contact Robyn or Andrew if you feel God is saying yes! awells@chpc.org

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Summer Nursery Helpers We're looking for adults and teens who want to care for and show God's love to our youngest children (0-4 years old) in the nursery. Please contact Robyn Hubbuch (rhubbuch@chpc.org) if you would like to serve during one of the services (9am, 10:10am, or 11:15am) at least once a month in June, July and August.

CRASH (7-9th grade) and Huddles (10th-12th grade) will both meet tonight. Bring a snack or drink to share!

CYF Ministry Partner Lunch on Sunday, May 22, 12:30-2pm in the Great Hall. Anyone who has worked with children and youth at CHPC programs this year is invited, along with their family. We will mostly just hang out and be friends at this lunch, but if you have a story of how you saw God working in a child or student this year, we will have a time to share and celebrate those joys with one another. Please RSVP to Robyn Hubbuch: rhubbuch@chpc.org.

The May BLAST (K-6) Theme is Contentment: "deciding to be happy with what you've got," and our memory verse is Philippians 4:12b: "I have learned the secret of being content no matter what happens. I am content whether I am well fed or hungry. I am content whether I have more than enough or not enough." Please pray this month that our children would be able to trust God to meet their needs and shift their focus toward what God wants them to do with what He's given them. Resources for both parents and kids are available on the BLAST page of the CYF website: <http://chpccyf.weebly.com/blast.html>.

CARING FOR THE FATHERLESS

God's heart for the fatherless is very clear. He loves them and calls us to love them. CHPC has the amazing opportunity to host and be involved with children in Necco's Independent Living Group. This is what Erica Burger from Necco says about the program:

"Providing foster care services in Cincinnati has provided our agency a first hand look of kids aging out of the system with no place to go. As a result, we opened our IL program with the hope that all former foster kids have food and shelter. With that part accomplished, we're aware more things need to be done to prepare them for total independence. This is why we've decided to add this group. We thank you and your congregation for being an integral part in molding productive young citizens in their perspective communities."

This group will meet at CHPC the third Friday of every month from 11am-1pm. The teens will learn various life skills like household management, stress management, financial empowerment, nutrition and food prep, time management, self care, legal rights, and CPR.

There are many ways to love and support the kids and staff of this program. Each month's needs include: lunch, drinks, paper products (cups, plates, utensils), dessert, gift cards to use for prizes/incentives. Anyone interested in teaching and/or attending the group is more than welcome!

It is my goal that each month Necco staff and these children would be blown away by the way Jesus shows His love for them by the way we love them. - Kristen Martin
