AN IRISH MUSICAL TREAT

Two young women, Annie Barr and Alyssa Griffith, who are studying at the University of Cincinnati, College Conservatory of Music, (CCM) will be sharing their talents with us on Monday evening, March 27, at Supper Club. They will present a recital with beautiful Irish repertoire, of both Irish poets and composers. Many of the songs are their favorites to perform together.

Annie Barr, Soprano from Buffalo, New York, is a second year Master of Music in Vocal Performance candidate at CCM. In February Annie performed the challenging role of Anne Sexton in the opera "Transformations," where she was praised for her unrelenting dynamic presence and vocal ability. She also performed the title role in CCM Opera's 2015 production of Handel's "Alcina". Annie is the Artist-in-Residence at the Twin Towers Retirement Community where she programs and performs monthly recitals. She has received awards for community service and leadership within the Cincinnati community.

Dynamic and diverse, pianist Alyssa Griffith has been praised for her "sheer musicality, intuitive and sympathetic collaboration, and the ability to fully inhabit a musical work." Known within the Midwest as a pianist and teacher, Alyssa can be found performing as a solo pianist, teaching young students, or working with others on art song, instrumental works, arias, and musical theater performance. Her work as an Artist-in-Residence at Twin Towers has taught her to intimately reach out to an audience, giving her the opportunity to individually touch people with the gift of music on a daily basis.

The evening will be a musical treat for all of us. Come Monday, March 27, in Fellowship Hall where a catered dinner will be served at 6:15. The price is $10.00, payable at the door, but you must make a reservation by calling Sally Auble at 741-3125 by this Thursday, March 23.
